The IEEE has developed this form with great care and with the best interests of its members and contributing authors in mind. Therefore, in order to maintain uniform treatment among all contributors, other forms may not be substituted for this form, nor may any wording of this form be changed. This form is intended for original, previously unpublished materials submitted to IEEE publications. This form, when completed, must accompany any such material in order to be published by IEEE. Please read it carefully and keep a copy of it for your files.

TITLE OF PAPER (hereinafter, "the work"):

_____

_____

AUTHOR(S): _____

Conference (Publication) Title: IEEE INFOCOM '99 - The Conference on Computer Communications Proceedings
Month and Year: March, 1999
PART A — Copyright Transfer Form
(U.S. Government employees whose work is not subject to U.S. copyright should so certify by signing Part B [over]. Authors of works subject to Crown Copyright should sign Part C [over].)

The undersigned hereby assigns all copyright rights in and to the above work to The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, Inc. (the "IEEE"). The undersigned hereby represents and warrants that the work is original and that he/she is the author of the work, except possibly for material such as text passages, figures, and data that clearly identify the original source, with permission notices from the copyright owners where required. The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment. In return for these rights, the IEEE recognizes the retained rights noted in Items 1 and 4 below, and grants to the above authors and employers for whom the work may have been performed royalty-free license to use the material as noted in Items 2 and 3. Item 5 stipulates that authors and employers must seek permission to republish in cases not covered by Items 2, 3, and 4.

1. Employers (or authors) retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the work.

2. Authors/employers may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce the above work, material extracted verbatim from the above work, or derivative works for the author's personal use or for company use provided that the source and the IEEE copyright notice are indicated, that the copies are not used in any way that implies IEEE endorsement of a product or service of an employer, and that the copies themselves are not offered for sale. (See Author/Employer Rights below.)

3. Authors/employers may make limited distribution of all or portions of the above work prior to publication if they inform the IEEE of the nature and extent of such limited distribution prior thereto.

4. In the case of work performed under a U.S. Government contract or grant, IEEE recognizes the U.S. Government has royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the above work, and to authorize others to do so, for official U.S. Government purposes only, if the contract/grant so requires. (Appropriate documentation may be attached, but IEEE's Copyright Form must be signed. See U.S. Government Employees/U.S. Government Contract Work below.)

5. For all circumstances not covered by Items 2, 3, and 4, authors/employers must request permission from the IEEE Copyrights and Permissions Office to reproduce or authorize the reproduction of the work or material extracted verbatim from the work, including figures and tables.

Please see notes on IEEE Obligations as copyright holder.

In the event the above work is not accepted and published by the IEEE or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by the IEEE, this agreement becomes null and void.
